INTRODUCTION

Decorations in a bathroom? Is it really needed? While you don't have to decorate this space, it does add an extra personal touch. You most likely staged the rest of your home — why not the restroom?

At Valor Home Services, we are the experts in luxury bathroom remodeling. In fact, we hand-selected and trained the current remodelers we have on our team. We always strive for not only the best but to provide you with a stress-free bathroom remodeling experience.

To make your life a little bit easier, we made this guide as a quick overview of everything you need to know about decorating your bathroom like a pro.

This eBook will introduce you to the basics of decorating your bathroom like an interior designer. It's nice to have a guide as well as inspiration to help you with all your bathroom decorating needs. That's why we created this eBook to help you along the way.

HOW TO DECORATE YOUR BATHROOM

You finally have your bathroom designed the way you want it. Now that the bare essentials are up, it is time to move onto the next step in creating your dream bathroom — decorating. Decorating is one of those tasks that many people look forward to.

And while you may have many ideas, you may have a hard time bringing them to life. That is why you need to check out these best ways on decorating your bathroom.

01 Pick a Theme

An easy way to decorate your bathroom is to go with a theme. For example, if you want a beach-themed restroom, you would stick with nautical or beach decorations. There are loads of themes to choose from, but common themes include nautical, floral, spa-like and rustic. Your theme will also help you find the best places to shop as well as keep you within your budget.

02 Consider Your Space

Space plays a huge role anytime you are decorating. You have to have room to place anything anywhere. Before purchasing decorations, consider where you want things to go and how big these items can be. For example, if you have a small restroom, you will stick to smaller decor pieces.

03 Don't Overdo It

Since decorating is a fun task that many homeowners look forward to, you may find yourself going on a shopping spree. And while it is your restroom and you can add whatever you like, you do not want to necessarily add too many objects. You have to remember that this room is a small area that holds many important items. Instead of placing everything down, only stick to some pieces that will elevate or heighten the atmosphere in the room.

04 Create a Budget

While remodeling, you may have heard over and over again — stick to your budget. Well, that doesn't stop here. Decorations can cost a pretty penny, and before you know it, you will spend an arm and a leg. Instead, draw up a budget and then find valuable pieces that stay within.

WHAT ARE THE BEST FIXTURES?

One of the hardest aspects to figure out in a bathroom are the fixtures. Fixtures encompass many different items like the faucets, shower, shower accessories, toilet, sinks, bathtub, bathtub accessories and more. To help you narrow down your search, we go over the best fixtures below.

Faucets

The first fixture you may think of is the faucets. Faucets come in all kinds of shapes, sizes and colors. We recommend window shopping before finding the right one for your bathroom. Trending faucet colors include gold, amber and stainless steel.

Shower

Your shower and all of its accessories are important fixtures you must think of. In the shower, fixtures include showerheads, shower doors/handles, panel/columns, faucets and shower pans.

Toilet

The toilet in your restroom is the most important feature. Without one, the room would not be considered a bathroom. Out on the market, there are a ton of toilet options for you to choose from. Whether you want a smart or a traditional one, there is one that is perfect for your restroom. While searching for the right toilet, consider what size and color you want that goes with the rest of the space.

Sinks

Your sink goes along with the faucets. You want a sink that will match the metal you went with on all your facets. You also want a sink to match the overall feel of the room. Right now, overhead sink bowls are popping up more and more in bathrooms. Popular colors include amber, stainless steel, white and cream.

Bathtub

Not all bathrooms have showers; instead, many have bathtubs. The first step you need to take is to figure out what kind of bathtub you want. You can pick a jacuzzi tub, walk-in tub, floating tub and more. From there, you then find the matching faucets. The best bathtub depends on your space and your wants/needs.

Additional Parts

While we went over some of the most important fixtures in your bathroom, we can't forget about the additional parts. These parts include handles, levers, doors, seats, and more. The best extra features should match the rest of your bathroom. For example, if you have stainless steel faucets, then the additional parts need to match.

WHAT KIND OF WALL DECOR SHOULD I PUT OUT?

01 Painting

A nice painting is always great wall decor that you can put out. It adds elegance, charm and sophistication to any bathroom. Plus, it is great if you want to add some personality without taking up much space. If you have a small bathroom, a painting or two are the perfect decorations to go with since they take up no floor space.

02 Statement Piece

Nothing makes a bathroom stand out more than a unique statement piece. While these pieces can be a painting or a photo, we challenge you to think outside of the box. Try hanging up a cool sculpture or work of art. Once your guests use your restroom, they will not forget about that piece.

03 Photos

Just because it is the bathroom does not mean you cannot hang up photos in there. We are not suggesting placing a family photo in the restroom, but you can hang tasteful pictures like scenery, animals, buildings, and other relaxing photos. And if your bathroom has a theme, you can place photos that revolve around it.

04 Storage

Believe it or not, storage can act as wall decor as well. Those stylish or cute wall shelving you installed on your walls can bring the room together while also holding other decorations or supplies, which is a win-win in our books. Plus, there are many different wall storage options you can choose from — medicine cabinets, shelves, racks, rods, etc.

HOW STORAGE WORKS AS DECOR

It is always a smart idea to have storage options in your bathroom. As one of the smallest rooms in your home, you have to make sure you have the space to hold everything. However, sometimes storage options can be an eyesore. We want you to have a way to organize everything but looks aesthetically pleasing in your bathroom. That's why we are going over how storage works as decor.

Pick Out Options That Match Your Theme

The first thing you should do is find storage options that match the theme of your restroom. You want everything to look cohesive and neat. For example, if you have a nautical theme, wicker baskets or sand buckets would work out in your favor while still looking like decoration pieces.

Consider Shelves

Did you know that shelving units can look like decoration pieces? There are so many different shelves out on the market. Whether you want floating shelves or wooden shelves, they have the right one for you (even in many different colors, shapes and sizes.) Once you have the shelves up, you can decide if you want to put anything on them or not.

Towel Ladder

Hold your towels and rags while still looking stylish with a towel ladder. When we say a ladder, we are talking about one of those small ladders with three or four steps. On their own, they give off a natural or rustic vibe. Then, once you add towels or rags, they work as decor and storage. And that's a win-win in our books.

Wicker Baskets

Wicker baskets go with so many different themes and look like a decoration piece from the get-go. So much so that you cannot go wrong with these kinds of baskets as your storage options. These baskets also can sit at many different places in a restroom — shelves, vanity, top of toilet and more.

How To Hide Pipes

Your bathroom has many different pipes to help water flow in and out. As we all know, these pipes are essential, but they can be unsightly. If you have exposed pipes, check out these ways to hide them.

Add a Vanity

If you have pipes showing around your sink, the easiest way to hide them is to cover them with a vanity. You can even create a vanity around the exposed area to conveniently hide them. Plus, it is easier to look at them if you need a plumber to come over. Your local home improvement store will have many vanity options.

Place Out Plants

Hide those unsightly pipes by covering them with plants. Plants will not only add life to the room but will even grow around them. If you do not want this to happen, we recommend trimming your plants as much as possible.

Incorporate Them Into Your Storage

Did you know that your pipes can work as storage options? Surprisingly, they do a great job at holding towels and rags. This is a great option if you have limited space in your bathroom.

Place Bulkier Decor Pieces

An easy way to hide pipes is to disguise them with bulky decor pieces. Standing sculptures, standing shelving units and ladders can keep your pipes away from eyesight.

Create a Hideaway Section

If you are a crafty person, you can hide your pipes by creating a hideaway section. A hideaway section is a mechanism or box that covers the pipes. We've seen people create small cabinets against walls to hide pipes. And, we've seen people build little doors to keep them away. We recommend checking out Pinterest for ideas.

Where Can I Find the Best Bathroom Decor?

Now that we have gone over the best ways to decorate your bathroom, you need to know where to find everything. While you can purchase these pieces literally anywhere, here are just a few more suggestions that may help you.

Off-Price Stores

Who doesn't like saving as much as possible while coming up with the best outcome? If you like to budget and are looking for great name-brand scores, then you need to find bathroom decor pieces at your local off-price store. You can find items at 50% off or more on their original price. Plus, these stores always have a bathroom section to shop from.

Etsy

If you like one-of-a-kind items or prefer to support family-owned or small shops, then you need to head over to Etsy. They have a variety of handmade decor pieces that you can use in your restroom. Plus, many shop owners can even personalize or add special details if you send in a request.

Online

When in doubt, if you don't know where to shop, you should always browse online. There are thousands of websites where you can find bathroom decor. The best thing about these shops is that everything gets delivered to you, and you don't have to actually go exploring.

Home/Department Stores

There is nothing wrong with sticking to what you know — home/department stores. These stores will have everything you need for your bathroom. Plus, the stores will have items already in different categories or themes. Just don't forget to look out for coupons.

Garage Sales/Thrift Stores

If you like to search for unique finds and want to hardcore budget, then you can always find great bathroom decor pieces at garage sales or thrift stores. We recommend picking items that have never been used or can easily be washed and disinfected.
